

Koperasi Simpan Pinjam Mitra Dhuafa

Access to credit for low-income women in rural Indonesia

INDONESIA

Koperasi Mitra Dhuafa (KOMIDA) is a registered Indonesian cooperative. It provides microfinance services to low-income women who have no access to the formal financial sector. In 2005, KOMIDA launched a microfinance programme based on the Grameen methodology (group lending) in the province of Aceh to help tsunami survivors. KOMIDA subsequently introduced the programme in other provinces, where it also specifically targets low-income women in rural areas. Today, KOMIDA manages 138 branches in 12 provinces which serve around 325,000 members (2016). It is considered one of the biggest MFI cooperatives in Indonesia. KOMIDA also offers savings products and a credit risk fund. KOMIDA has a strong social performance and has endorsed the SMART Campaign's client protection principles. Koperasi Mitra Dhuafa has been an Oikocredit partner since 2016.

Partner info

| FACTS   |  |
|---------|--|
| Sector  | Financial services   |
| Website | www.mitradhuafa.com |

| SOCIAL PERFORMANCE                       |         |
|--|---------|
| Number of clients                        | 851,597 |
| Female clients                           | 100.0%  |
| Rural clients                            | 96.0%   |
| ADDITIONAL PRODUCTS AND SERVICES OFFERED |         |
| Social services                          |         |

Last synced with latest available data on: January 10, 2025

Oikocredit international

I: www.oikocredit.coop

E:

This document was produced by Oikocredit, Ecumenical Development Cooperative Society U.A. (Oikocredit International) with the greatest of care and to the best of its knowledge and belief at the time of writing. Oikocredit International provides no guarantee with regard to its content and completeness and does not accept any liability for losses which might arise from making use of this information.